

SCHOLARSHIP, AIDE FINANCIERE, CONTRIBUTO ECONOMICO...

The Elisad Board has established a single scholarship of € 200 for Elisad members who require financial assistance to attend the 2011 Annual Conference in Paris, France. This is a new opportunity open to members.

Eligibility and Application Procedures:

Applicants must have been an Elisad full member for at least one year to be eligible. Conference presenters and first-time attendees will be given priority for funding. No one will be funded for two consecutive years. Members from the hosting country can not apply.

Applicants should first seek support from their home organisation or other sponsor before requesting support from Elisad.

Awards will be determined by a committee consisting of Elisad Chair, Members of the conference committee (including the local host organiser), and Elisad Treasurer. After the committee's decision all applicants will be informed through e-mail whether they have been successful or not. The scholarship shall be paid to the recipient when the Registration form to the Annual Conference has been received by Elisad.

A letter of application should be submitted to Elisad Chair, Claes Olsson no later than July 31, 2011 and preferably by e-mail in English or in French.

Letters of application should include:

- Statement from the member of her/his aims for participating in the conference.
- Estimated costs for attendance.
- Statement from the member's home organisation indicating availability and amount of complementary funds.

The scholarship recipient must make their own arrangements for travel and accommodation. After the Annual Conference the recipient shall provide the Treasurer with receipts as a proof of their costs as soon as possible. The recipient shall also be prepared to write a report from the conference to be published on Elisad web page or in Elisad Journal.
