

Sources and tools within gambling addiction

Aurélie Wellenstein, Librarian, Marmottan Hospital, Paris

Pathological gambling is the subject of numerous researches and publications in various fields. However, there's no database that gather all the literature about this topic. We will present some websites for in-depth researches in this field.

Databases:

Marmottan's database (gambling section) – France

http://www.hopital-marmottan.fr/documentation/pmb/opac_css/index.php?lvl=section_see&location=1&id=2

Centre for Excessive Gambling (press review about gambling) – Swiss

<http://www.jeu-excessif.ch/pages/en/A-09.cfm>

Gambling Data Collection Project – Italy

<http://centrostudi.gruppoabele.org/gambling/en/>

GRA (Gambling Research Australia) – Australia

http://www.gamblingresearch.org.au/webint/agr/agrbibliographies.nsf/\$\$Search/?OpenForm

Project Cork

http://www.projectcork.org/bibliographies/data/Bibliography_Gambling.html

Scirus (searching through Medline Pubmed, Pubmed Central et Science Direct)

<http://www.scirus.com/>

Google Scholar

<http://scholar.google.fr/>

Journals:

Journal of gambling studies:

<http://www.springerlink.com/content/1050-5350>

International Gambling Studies:

<http://www.tandfonline.com/toc/rigs20/current>

Others:

www.freefullpdf.com/